

CATHOLIC SCHOOL AND RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

PARENT QUESTIONNAIRE – NOVEMBER 2018

Thank you for taking the time to provide feedback. Below is a summary of the 89 questionnaires returned, and any response as appropriate. As always we appreciate your feedback in order to make sure that we continue to provide the best possible education and experience for your children and will aim to take action to address any issues raised.

		Strongly Agree	Agree	Disagree	Strongly Disagree	Don't Know
1	My child enjoys being at this Catholic school	83%	17%	0	0	0
2	I am happy with the values and attitudes that the school teaches	83%	16%	0	1%	0

- The values and attitudes that we teach are the Gospel Values which are at the heart of Christianity, and encompass the British Values that we are required to promote.
- Our values and attitudes are at the heart of all that we do as a school, and help us to create the strong Christian ethos that makes our school a special place.
- We teach and promote these values and attitudes through Come and See, PSHE, assemblies, collective worship and through the way that we treat each other. They also inform all of our policies and procedures within school.
- Our Mission Statement, "to love and serve as Jesus shows us", outlines how we live these values and attitudes as a school community.

3	I am made to feel welcome in the school	88%	12%	0	0	0
4	The school seeks the views of parents/carers and takes account of their suggestions and concerns	66%	34%	0	0	0
5	The school gives me a clear understanding of what is taught in Religious Education	67%	31%	1%	0	0

- An overview of the Religious Education taught through Come and See is available on the school website and is now contained in your child's Pupil Planner (Page 112)
- Information about the class themes being taught in Come and See is contained within the Curriculum Newsletter sent home each half term, and a whole school RE newsletter is sent home each term outlining what each class is being taught and ways that you could support this at home.
- Learning from Come and See is shared and celebrated at the end of each topic in a Rejoice Assembly led by each class throughout the year.
