Just a quick reminder this week to send in warm clothing for children for PE lessons. Some children are still just in shorts and the weather has been very cold this week. Also 4K's outside classroom door will no longer be open in the mornings when children come into school to avoid the classroom becoming too cold for the children. Please can children enter school via the rear entrance. Parents of the children detailed below are invited to join us in celebration assembly next Friday at 9:10am.
